Questions and Answers regarding Solicitation W81K0026QA043

Question 1 - Training Structure

Would this tiered training model be considered responsive to the solicitation requirements, or does the solicitation require that all trainings be delivered as standalone, discrete 1-day workshops that are not connected to one another?

Answer 1: The training should be a stand-alone eight (8) hours training unless the course description specifically states otherwise.

Question 2 - Post-Training Consultation

Would inclusion of post-training consultation be considered allowable and responsive under this solicitation, or is the training model required to consist solely of single-session workshops without follow-up consultation?

Answer 2: No, there is no intent to include post- training consults.

Question 3 - Indirect (F&A) Costs

Does the contract associated with this solicitation permit the inclusion of facilities and administrative (F&A) or indirect costs as a separate line item, or should all overhead and indirect costs be incorporated into the proposed fixed cost rates?

Answer 3: No, a separate line item is not permitted for F&A or indirect costs. This is a Firm-Fixed Price procurement.

Question 4- Can the requested Course Catalog be provided upon award?

Answer 4: No, the Government requires that course listing and descriptions be available for the department to review for technical acceptability. It MUST be provided with quote response.

Question 5- Invoicing and Payment

Is it possible to use a different payment schedule as we typically invoice for services upfront for the period. If not upfront, twice a year or quarterly?

Answer 5: No, the Government pays for services after services are rendered. Not upfront.
