Q#	Section Reference	Question(s)	Government Response
52	Event Scope, Objectives & Creative Direction	Which event elements are considered top priority from a design and impact perspective (e.g., entrance experience, stage, donor wall, photo activation areas)?	There will be a life-sized Liberty Bell replica that will be the centerpiece decoration of the event.
53	Event Scope, Objectives & Creative Direction	What is the intended guest journey, from arrival through departure?	Guests will enter and be greeted by ConGen staff ushers, who guide them to the event area and point out photo points and where to get refreshments. Guests' first stop will be to greet the Chargee d'Affaires and Consul General in the receiving line, then mingle. Once most guests have arrived, they will view presentations by U.S. Mission and join in the U.S. and Saudi national anthems, culminating with cutting of the cake by U.S. Mission leaders and several most-notable VVIPs. Guests will then continue to mingle, with the addition of entertainment (either band or DJ) and buffet-style dinner. Upon exiting, they will receive party favors (if part of the proposal).
54	Event Scope, Objectives & Creative Direction	What is the duration of the event?	The event is planned from 8PM to 10:30PM for guests. That is subject to change slightly depending on programming.
55	Event Scope, Objectives & Creative Direction	What is the contractor's scope for donation providers? Will the in-kind donation providers list be shared by ConGen for the contractor's coordination, or will this be exclusively managed by the contractor?	Confirmed in-kind donations will be shared with the contractor to coordinate placement within the event.
56	Guest Attendance, Protocol & Management	Will the Consulate manage guest lists, RSVPs, and on-site registration, or should these be included within the contractor's scope?	Guest lists, RSVPs and onsite registration will be handled by consulate staff.
57	Guest Attendance, Protocol & Management	Are there defined VIP/VVIP protocol requirements, including receiving lines, seating hierarchy, and escorting?	VIP/VVIP protocols will be managed by consulate staff

Q#	Section Reference	Question(s)	Government Response
58	Guest Attendance, Protocol & Management	For optional VVIP seating, is there a preferred layout style (theater, lounge, hybrid), and should this area be visually distinct from general guest seating?	Seating for 40 VVIP guests should be theater style immediately in front of the stage and accessible by the red carpet. Spacing should be adjusted depending on stage size, and can be several rows. The remainder of the event will not be seated, so the VVIP seating area should be set apart from other guests (visually and physically) and is primarily intended for VVIP guests to sit during the presentations. Other guests will be primarily standing. Please utilize cocktail tables and other solutions to accommodate standing guests. Please see SOW for description regarding VVIP and lounge seating optional proposals. Lounge seating may be proposed for VVIP guests who attend the full event, although most VVIP guests will likely attend only the early portion (presentation). Vendor should make recommendations as to style (fitting with overall theme), quantity, and placement. Q#	Section Reference	Question(s)	Government Response
69	Catering, Food & Beverage	Are live cooking stations or the use of heat/flame elements permitted on site?	Yes.
70	Catering, Food & Beverage	Should menu tastings be conducted at the Consulate or at the caterer's venue?	Caterer's venue.
71	Catering, Food & Beverage	Will a sample components menu be shared separately? As it was not included in the original RFP.	Yes, sample component menu attached. (Page# 17)
72	Entertainment, AV & Content Delivery	Will the Consulate provide a detailed run-of-show, including speeches and performances?	Yes, this will be provided once it is finalized by consulate leadership.
73	Entertainment, AV & Content Delivery	Is there a technical rider for the band?	No.
74	Entertainment, AV & Content Delivery	Will the band occupy the stage for the entire duration of the event?	If a band is procured by consulate, they will be onstage for much of the event.
75	Entertainment, AV & Content Delivery	Are there sound level limitations due to compound or security regulations?	None other than are outlined in the SOW.
76	Entertainment, AV & Content Delivery	For the optional LED screen, is there a preferred size or resolution, and who will be responsible for content development and approval?	Screen should fit within the footprint of the stage. Content will be provided by the Consulate.
77	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	Are there defined content priorities (e.g., social media assets versus archival documentation), including any same-day deliverables?	The vendor will provide comprehensive photography coverage of the Independence Day event, capturing principal leaders, key attendees, formal ceremonies, candid interactions, and event highlights. The vendor will deliver a curated selection of 10–15 edited images optimized for social media by 6:00 p.m. on the day of the event, and a complete set of high-resolution, edited official photos—including images of principal leaders, dignitaries, and attendees—within five business days. All images must be provided in both high-resolution and web-optimized formats and comply with Department of State privacy and security guidelines. All photos will be the property of the Department of State for official use.

78	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	Is bilingual (Arabic/English) capability required for all on-site staff or only for key roles?	Only key roles that will be speaking with consulate staff and/or guests.
79	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	Will the Consulate provide security clearance templates and staff dress code guidance?	Yes.
80	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	What is the intended approach and purpose of the donor wall, including branding, recognition level, and placement?	The donor wall is intended to prominently highlight key donors using their own branding/logos. ConGen Jeddah invites proposals and recommendations for recognition level and placement, with the goal that all guests should be able to prominently see the donor wall throughout the event and walk away with some brand recognition. The donor wall could be a large banner, digital, or take other formats as long as these goals are met.
81	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	Is continuous coverage required for the full event duration, including setup or only during event hours?	Only during event hours.
82	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	What is the preferred duration and style of the edited video reel (e.g., 60–90 sec highlight, cinematic, documentary)?	The vendor will produce a 60-second highlight reel filmed in a vertical (9:16) format, optimized for Instagram. The video should feature principal leaders, candid interactions, and attendees, using a dynamic and engaging style suitable for social media. The final product must be edited for immediate sharing, with attention to pacing, visual appeal, and Instagram-friendly transitions. The reel should be delivered in a format compatible with Instagram. ConGen Jeddah will provide official branding and logos that should be incorporated in the reel.

83	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	Is raw footage required to be delivered in addition to the edited reel?	No.
84	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	Should photos follow any specific visual guidelines, branding, or framing standards?	Photos should adhere to Department of State visual guidelines, emphasizing clear, well-lit images that reflect the professionalism and diversity of the event. Images should avoid heavy filters or effects and maintain natural color balance. Principal leaders and key moments should be framed clearly, with attention to composition and context. When possible, include Department branding elements (such as official signage, flags, or event backdrops) in the background to reinforce the event's official nature. The vendor should provide a balanced mix of horizontal and vertical images to support a variety of uses, including print, web, and social media. All images must be accessible, avoiding visual clutter and ensuring that subjects are easily identifiable. The vendor should coordinate with the event's communications team to ensure consistency with Department standards and branding.
85	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	Are there any restrictions on camera types, lenses, and stabilizers?	No drones.

Questions and Answers RFP 19SA4026R0002 - Event Planner Independence Day Event 2026

Q#	Section Reference	Question(s)	Government Response
86	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	Will ConGen Jeddah require multiple formats or resolutions for photos/videos (web, archive, press use)?	Yes. All photos and videos must be delivered in high quality, regardless of format or intended use. The vendor should provide images and video in multiple formats and resolutions suitable for press releases, official mission use, social media, and archival purposes. High-resolution originals should be preserved for official and archival needs, while appropriately compressed versions should be supplied for web and social media. All content must maintain clarity, color accuracy, and professional composition, ensuring that quality is not compromised during formatting or compression.
87	Photography, Staffing & Commercial Matters	Following event setup and prior to guest arrival, would the Contractor be permitted to photograph completed event elements (e.g., décor, staging, lighting, branded installations)?	Yes, but photos will need to be cleared by security and cannot be published without client consent.
