PART I - THE SCHEDULE
SECTION F
DELIVERIES OR PERFORMANCE

52.211-8 TIME OF DELIVERY (JUN 1997)
(IAW FAR 11.404(a)(2))

(a) The Government requires delivery to be made according to the following schedule:

DELIVERY FOR EACH ITEM IS ANNOTATED IN THE SCHEDULE (PART I SECTION B) UNDER EACH LINE ITEM.

The Government will evaluate equally, as regards time of delivery, offers that propose delivery of each quantity within the applicable delivery period specified above. Offers that propose delivery that will not clearly fall within the applicable required delivery period specified above, will be considered nonresponsive and rejected. The Government reserves the right to award under either the required delivery schedule or the proposed delivery schedule, when an offeror offers an earlier delivery schedule than required above. If the offeror proposes no other delivery schedule, the required delivery schedule above will apply.

ANNOTATE YOUR PROPOSED DELIVERY, IF ANY, UNDER THE GOVERNMENT'S DELIVERY SET FORTH UNDER EACH ITEM IN THE SCHEDULE.

(b) Attention is directed to the Contract Award provision of the solicitation that provides that a written award or acceptance of offer mailed, or otherwise furnished to the successful offeror, results in a binding contract. The Government will mail or otherwise furnish to the offeror an award or notice of award not later than the day award is dated. Therefore, the offeror should compute the time available for performance beginning with the actual date of award, rather than the date the written notice of award is received from the Contracting Officer through the ordinary mails. However, the Government will evaluate an offer that proposes delivery based on the Contractor's date of receipt of the contract or notice of award by adding (1) five calendar days for delivery of the award through the ordinary mails, or (2) one working day if the solicitation states that the contract or notice of award will be transmitted electronically. (The term "working day" excludes weekends and U.S. Federal holidays.) If, as so computed, the offered delivery date is later than the required delivery date, the offer will be considered nonresponsive and rejected.

52.211-8 TIME OF DELIVERY -- ALTERNATE I (APR 1984)

If the delivery schedule is expressed in terms of specific calendar dates or specific periods and is based on an assumed date of award, the contracting officer may substitute the following paragraph (b) for paragraph (b) of the basic clause. The time may be expressed by substituting "on or before"; "during the months ..."; or "not sooner than ... or later than ..." as headings for the third column of paragraph (a) the basic clause.

(b) The delivery dates or specific periods above are based on the assumption that the Government will make award by _____. Each delivery date in the delivery schedule above will be extended by the number of calendar days after the above date that the contract is in fact awarded. Attention is directed to the Contract Award provision of the solicitation that provides that a written award or acceptance of offer mailed or otherwise furnished to the successful offeror results in a binding contract. Therefore, the offeror should compute the time available for performance beginning with the actual date of award, rather than the date the written notice of award is received from the Contracting Officer through the ordinary mails.

52.211-17 DELIVERY OF EXCESS QUANTITIES (SEP 1989)

Both the Government and Contractor agree to waive payment of any residual dollar amount of $1,000 or less to which either party may be entitled at the time of contract closeout.

52.209-1 QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS (FEB 1995)
(IAW FAR 9.206-2)

(a) Definition: "Qualification Requirement," as used in this clause, means a Government requirement for testing or other quality assurance demonstration that must be completed before award.

(b) One or more qualification requirements apply to the supplies or services covered by this contract. For those supplies or services requiring qualification, whether the covered product or service is an end item, the product, manufacturer, or source must have demonstrated that it meets the standards prescribed for qualification before award of this contract. The product, manufacturer, or source must be qualified at the time of award whether or not the name of the product, manufacturer, or source is actually included on a qualified products list, qualified manufacturers list, or qualified bidders list. Offerors should contact the agency activity designated below to obtain all requirements that they or their products or services, or their subcontractors or their products or services, must satisfy to become qualified and to arrange for an opportunity to demonstrate their abilities to meet the standards specified for qualification.

Item No	Agency Name/Address
0001	AFSC/SB Attn: Source Development Specialist 3001 Staff Dr Ste 1AG85A Tinker AFB, OK 73145

0002	AFSC/SB Attn: Source Development Specialist 3001 Staff Dr Ste 1AG85A Tinker AFB, OK 73145

(c) If an offeror, manufacturer, source, product or service covered by a qualification requirement has already met the standards specified, the relevant information noted below should be provided.

Offeror's Name _____

Manufacturer's Name _____

Source's Name _____

Item Name _____

Service Identification _____

Test Number _____ (to the extent known)

(d) Even though a product or service subject to a qualification requirement is not itself an end item under this contract, the product, manufacturer, or source must nevertheless be qualified at the time of award of this contract. This is necessary whether the Contractor or a subcontractor will ultimately provide the product or service in question. If, after award, the Contracting Officer discovers that an applicable qualification requirement was not in fact met at the time of award, the Contracting Officer may either terminate this contract for default or allow performance to continue if adequate consideration is offered and the action is determined to be otherwise in the Government's best interests.

(e) If an offeror, manufacturer, source, product, or service has met the qualification requirement but is not yet on a qualified products list, qualified manufacturers list, or qualified bidders list, the offeror must submit evidence of qualification prior to award of this contract. Unless determined to be in the Government's interest, award of this contract shall not be delayed to permit an offeror to submit evidence of qualification.

(f) Any change in location or ownership of the plant where a previously qualified product or service was manufactured or performed requires reevaluation of the qualification. Similarly, any change in location or ownership of a previously qualified manufacturer or source requires reevaluation of the qualification. The reevaluation must be accomplished before the date of award.

(IAW FAR 29.402-3(a))

(a) Definitions. As used in this provision—

Foreign person means any person other than a United States person.

Specified Federal procurement payment means any payment made pursuant to a contract with a foreign contracting party that is for goods, manufactured or produced, or services provided in a foreign country that is not a party to an international procurement agreement with the United States. For purposes of the prior sentence, a foreign country does not include an outlying area.

United States person as defined in 26 U.S.C. 7701(a)(30) means—

- (1) A citizen or resident of the United States;
- (2) A domestic partnership;
- (3) A domestic corporation;

 - (ii) One or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

(b) Unless exempted, there is a 2 percent tax of the amount of a specified Federal procurement payment on any foreign person receiving such payment. See 26 U.S.C. 5000C and its implementing regulations at 26 CFR 1.5000C–1 through 1.5000C–7.

(c) Exemptions from withholding under this provision are described at 26 CFR 1.5000C–1(d)(5) through (7). The Offeror would claim an exemption from the withholding by using the Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service Form W–14, Certificate of Foreign Contracting Party Receiving Federal Procurement Payments, available via the internet at www.irs.gov/w14. Any exemption claimed and self-certified on the IRS Form W–14 is subject to audit by the IRS. Any disputes regarding the imposition and collection of the 26 U.S.C. 5000C tax are adjudicated by the IRS as the 26 U.S.C. 5000C tax is a tax matter, not a contract issue. The IRS Form W–14 is provided to the acquiring agency rather than to the IRS.

(d) For purposes of withholding under 26 U.S.C. 5000C, the Offeror represents that—

(1) It ☐ is ☐ is not a foreign person; and

(2) If the Offeror indicates “is” in paragraph (d)(1) of this provision, then the Offeror represents that—

I am claiming on the IRS Form W–14 ☐ a full exemption, or ☐ partial or no exemption
[Offeror shall select one] from the excise tax.

(e) If the Offeror represents it is a foreign person in paragraph (d)(1) of this provision, then—

- (1) The clause at FAR 52.229–12, Tax on Certain Foreign Procurements, will be included in any resulting contract; and
- (2) The Offeror shall submit with its offer the IRS Form W–14. If the IRS Form W–14 is not submitted with the offer, exemptions will not be applied to any resulting contract and the Government will withhold a full 2 percent of each payment.

(f) If the Offeror selects “is” in paragraph (d)(1) and “partial or no exemption” in paragraph (d)(2) of this provision, the Offeror will be subject to withholding in accordance with the clause at FAR 52.229–12, Tax on Certain Foreign Procurements, in any resulting contract.

(g) A taxpayer may, for a fee, seek advice from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as to the proper tax treatment of a transaction. This is called a private letter ruling. Also, the IRS may publish a revenue ruling, which is an official interpretation by the IRS of the Internal Revenue Code, related statutes, tax treaties, and regulations. A revenue ruling is the conclusion of the IRS on how the law is applied to a specific set of facts. For questions relating to the interpretation of the IRS regulations go to <https://www.irs.gov/help/tax-law-questions>.

252.204-7024 NOTICE ON THE USE OF THE SUPPLIER PERFORMANCE RISK SYSTEM
(MAR 2023)
(IAW DFARS 204.7604)

(a) Definitions. As used in this provision—

Item risk means the probability that a product, based on intended use, will introduce performance risk resulting in safety issues, mission degradation, or monetary loss.

Price risk means a measure of whether a proposed price for a product or service is consistent with historical prices paid for that item or service.

Supplier risk means the probability that an award may subject the procurement to the risk of unsuccessful performance or to supply chain risk (see Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement 239.7301).

(b) The Supplier Performance Risk System (SPRS), available at <https://piee.eb.mil/>, will be used in the evaluation of the Quoter or Offeror’s performance. SPRS retrieves item, price, quality, delivery, and contractor information on contracts from Government reporting systems in order to develop risk assessments.

(c) The Contracting Officer will consider SPRS risk assessments during the evaluation of quotations or offers received in response to this solicitation as follows:

(1) Item risk will be considered to determine whether the procurement represents a high performance risk to the Government.

(2) Price risk will be considered in determining if a proposed price is consistent with historical prices paid for a product or a service or otherwise creates a risk to the Government.

(3) Supplier risk, including but not limited to quality and delivery, will be considered to assess the risk of unsuccessful performance and supply chain risk.

(d) SPRS risk assessments are generated daily. Quoters or Offerors are able to access their risk assessments by following the access instructions in the SPRS user’s guide available at <https://www.sprs.csd.disa.mil/reference.htm>. Quoters and Offerors are granted access to SPRS for their own risk assessment classifications only. SPRS reporting procedures and risk assessment methodology are detailed in the SPRS user’s guide. The method to challenge a rating generated by SPRS is also provided in the user’s guide. SPRS evaluation criteria are available at https://www.sprs.csd.disa.mil/pdf/SPRS_DataEvaluationCriteria.pdf.

(e) The Contracting Officer may consider any other available and relevant information when evaluating a quotation or an offer.

PART IV - REPRESENTATIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS
SECTION M
EVALUATION FACTORS FOR AWARD

52.232-15 PROGRESS PAYMENTS NOT INCLUDED (APR 1984)
(IAW FAR 32.502-3(c))

SECTION M
EVALUATION FACTORS FOR AWARD USING BEST VALUE PROCESS, PERFORMANCE PRICE TRADEOFF (PPT) SOURCE SELECTION PROCEDURES (WITH SMALL BUSINESS PARTICIPATION FACTOR)

A. Basis for Contract Award

This acquisition will utilize the Best Value Process, Performance price Tradeoff source selection procedures in accordance with Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Part 15.101-1, as supplemented, to make an assessment for a best value award decision. Tradeoffs will be made only between price and past performance among those offerors who have been determined technically acceptable. Award will be made to the offeror who is deemed responsible in accordance with FAR Part 15.101, as supplemented, whose proposal conforms to the solicitation requirements and is judged, based on the evaluation factors, to represent the best value to the Government. The Government seeks to award to the offeror who gives the Defense Logistics Agency the greatest confidence that it will best meet the requirements affordably. This may result in an award to a higher rated, higher priced offeror, where the decision is consistent with the evaluation factors and the Source Selection Authority (SSA) reasonably determined that the technical acceptable, superior past performance of the higher price offeror outweighs the cost difference. While the Government source selection evaluation team and the SSA will strive for maximum objectivity, the source selection process, by its nature, is subjective and, therefore, professional judgement is implicit throughout the entire process. The Government intends to award without discussions/reserves the right to award without discussions. Therefore, each initial offer should contain the offeror's best terms from a price and technical standpoint. However, the Government reserves the right to conduct discussions if determined necessary by the Contracting Officer.

B. Number of Contracts to be Awarded

The Government intends to select one contractor for the program. However, the Government reserves the right to award no contract at all, depending on the quality of the proposals and prices submitted and the availability of funds.

C. Rejection of Unrealistic Offers

The Government may reject any proposal that is evaluated to be unrealistic in terms of program commitments, including contract terms and conditions, or unrealistically high or low in cost/price when compared to Government estimates, such that the proposal is deemed to reflect an inherent lack of competence or failure to comprehend the complexity and risks of the program.

D. Correction Potential of Proposals

The Government will consider, throughout the evaluation, the "correction potential" of any deficiency or proposal inadequacy. The judgment of such "correction potential" is within the sole discretion of the Government. If an aspect of an offeror's proposal not meeting the Government's requirements is not considered correctable, the offeror may be eliminated from the competitive range.

PRE-AWARD SURVEY

The Government may conduct a pre-award survey (PAS) as part of this source selection. Results of the PAS (if conducted) will be evaluated to determine each offeror's capability to meet the requirements of the solicitation.

PLANT VISITS

In the event discussions are necessary, plant visits may be conducted during the evaluation phase to develop knowledge for judging the potential for correction of the deficiencies.

SOLICITATION REQUIREMENTS, TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Offerors are required to meet all solicitation requirements; such as terms and conditions, representations and certifications, and technical requirements, in addition to those identified as factors, subfactors to be eligible for award. Any aspect of the proposal judged to be unacceptable would render the entire proposal unacceptable. Failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the solicitation may result in the offeror being removed from consideration for award. Any exceptions to the solicitation's terms and conditions must be fully explained and justified.

EVALUATION CRITERIA FOR AWARD

(IAW FAR 13.106-2(b), 14.201-5(c), and 15.204-5(c))

For the purposes of award, offers will be evaluated for acceptability of evaluation factors described below:

FACTOR 1: Technical

FACTOR 2: Cost/Price

FACTOR 3: Past Performance

FACTOR 4: Small Business Participation

a. Order of Importance

For this solicitation, technical and small business participation acceptability is a prerequisite to the best value analysis and potential trade-off between Price and Past Performance. The Order of importance is used to explain how the other factors will be traded off on technically acceptable proposals.

For all technically and small business participation acceptable proposals, Factor 2 (Cost/Price) will be evaluated on a basis approximately equal to Factor 3 (Past Performance). Tradeoffs may only be made between price and past performance among those offerors who have been determined technically acceptable.

b. Evaluation Methodology

All proposals will first be evaluated for technical and small business plan acceptability. Second, price will be evaluated. Concurrent with the price evaluation, past performance will be evaluated. A decision will then be made as to which proposal provides the best value to the Government.

c. Technical Factor

(1) Technical proposals are not required. Technical acceptability will be determined based on the offerors compliance with the requirement as stated in Section B Schedule and/or any referenced specifications, engineering notes and all other attachments herein.

(2) The delivery schedule will be evaluated based on the dates established in Section B of the solicitation. It should be noted that the Government's required delivery is based on the Requirements' need date, and may not be attainable. Therefore, if a proposed delivery does not meet the Government's required delivery, the proposed delivery may be considered responsive.

Technical acceptability will be ascertained based on one of the ratings described below. Proposals will be evaluated for compliance with solicitation; receipt of a responsive proposal to deliver the supplies in accordance with the solicitation and all other attachments herein.

Acceptable – The proposal meets specified minimum requirements necessary for acceptable contract performance.

Unacceptable – The proposal fails to meet specified minimum requirements necessary for contract performance. Proposals with an unacceptable rating are not awardable.

d. Cost/Price Factor (IAW 5315.305(a)(1))

(1) The offeror's cost/price proposal will be evaluated for award purposes by multiplying the proposed unit price by the total quantity. The quantity utilized for evaluation will be based on the firm quantity incorporated in Schedule B.

(2) Unrealistically low proposed costs or prices, initially or subsequently, may be grounds for eliminating a proposal from competition either on the bases that the offeror does not understand the requirement or the offeror has made an unrealistic proposal.

(3) Offerors are cautioned against submitting an offer that contains unbalanced pricing. Unbalanced pricing may increase performance risk and could result in payment of unreasonably high prices. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly over or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. The Government shall analyze offers to determine whether they are unbalanced with respect to separately priced line items or subline items. Offers that are determined to be unbalanced may be rejected if the contracting officer determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk to the government.

(4) Cost/price proposals submitted by vendors shall be evaluated by multiplying the proposed unit price by the quantity desired by the Government to determine the contractor's total price.

Proposals will be evaluated as follows:

The contractor's proposal for the firm quantity under CLIN 0001 is the price factor that will be used in evaluation. Evaluation of award will be based on the proposed unit price multiplied by the required quantity.

(5) If incidental or miscellaneous expenses not related to specific CLIN structure accompany vendor proposals, these charges shall be added to the total CLIN cost/price to reach the final total cost/price proposed to the Government. In addition 'Price Analysis' shall be conducted in accordance with FAR 15.404-1, to determine 'Reasonableness' on all offers submitted by vendors.

*Unrealistically low costs/prices proposed either initially or subsequently may be grounds for elimination of an offer from the competition and shall be based upon the vendor not understanding requirements or because an unrealistic proposal was submitted.

e. Past Performance Factor

The Past Performance Evaluation is accomplished by reviewing aspects of an offeror's (1) relevant past performance and (2) recent past performance, focusing on and targeting performance, which is relevant to the technical requirement. In determining relevance, consideration will be given to the likeliness and similarity of the effort to include contract scope, contract type, and contract schedule. This information may include data on parts manufactured by other divisions, critical subcontractors, or teaming contractors, if such resources significantly influence the proposed requirement. The Government may consider relevant work as those performed for agencies of the federal, state, or local governments and commercial customers. Where relevant performance record indicates performance problems, the Government will consider the number and severity of the problems and the appropriateness and effectiveness of any corrective actions taken (not just planned or promised). The Government may review more recent contracts or performance evaluations to ensure corrective actions have been implemented and to evaluate their effectiveness.

The Government will evaluate the offeror's past performance by reviewing the offeror's record of supplying products that comply with contract requirements, including cost and schedule. Under the Past Performance factor, a Performance Confidence Assessment Rating represents the evaluation of an offeror's present and past work record to assess the Government's confidence in the offeror's probability of successfully performing as proposed.

The offeror is not required to provide Past Performance information. Past performance information will be determined primarily based on the offeror's "Supplier Risk Score" in the Supplier Performance Risk System (SPRS) at the time of the close of the solicitation period. Past performance may also be obtained through the contractor Performance Assessment Reporting System (CPARS), similarly systems of other Government departments and agencies (MOCAS, etc), questionnaires tailored to the circumstances of this acquisition, Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA) channels, interviews with program managers and contracting officers, and other sources known to the Government, including commercial sources.

Each offeror will receive an integrated Performance Confidence Assessment rating, which is the rating for the Past Performance factor. Although the past performance evaluation focuses on performance that is recent and relevant to the technical requirement, the resulting Performance Confidence Assessment is made at the factor level and represents an overall evaluation of contractor performance. The Past Performance factor will receive one of the following performance confidence assessment ratings IAW the Department of Defense (DoD) Source Selection Procedures.

Rating	Description
SATISFACTORY CONFIDENCE	Based on the offeror's recent/relevant performance record, the Government has a reasonable expectation that the offeror will successfully perform the required effort.
NEUTRAL CONFIDENCE	No recent/relevant performance record is available or the offeror's performance record is so sparse that no meaningful confidence assessment rating can be reasonably assigned. The offeror may not be evaluated favorably or unfavorably on the factor of past performance.
LIMITED CONFIDENCE	Based on the offeror's recent/relevant performance record, the Government has a low expectation that the offeror will successfully perform the required effort.
NO CONFIDENCE	Based on the offeror's recent/relevant performance record, the Government has no expectation that the offeror will be able to successfully perform the required effort.

Note: With regards to the best value award decision, all offerors receiving the same past performance rating will be considered equal for the Past Performance Factor.

Offerors without a record of relevant past performance or for whom information on past performance is not available will not be evaluated favorably or unfavorably on past performance and, as a result, will receive a "Neutral confidence" rating for the Past Performance factor. In the context of acceptability/unacceptability, a neutral rating shall be considered "acceptable."

Offerors with adverse past performance information to which they have not previously had an opportunity to respond will be given the opportunity to provide clarifications concerning the adverse information.

f. Small Business Participation Factor

All offerors, including small businesses, must submit a Small Business Participation Plan. Each offer will be determined acceptable for this factor if the Small Business Participation Plan is determined adequate in accordance with the descriptions below. Only those Plans determined to be acceptable, either initially, or as a result of discussions, will be considered for award. Each offeror will receive one of the Small Business Participation Plan ratings below:

Acceptable - Proposal indicates an adequate approach and understanding of small business objectives.

Unacceptable - Proposal does not meet small business objectives.

The evaluation will consider whether the Small Business Participation Plan adequately reflects an approach and understanding of the following small business objectives to include (1) the extent of participation of proposed Small Businesses when subcontracting possibilities exist to include the (2) description of the subcontracted work these proposed firms are to perform, (3) the company names/CAGE codes planned for use in the performance of this resultant contract along with the (4) associated goals to include service-disabled veteran-owned small business concerns, HUBZone small business concerns, small disadvantaged business concerns, and women-owned small business concerns (5) expressed in terms of percentages of both the total planned subcontracted dollars and total contract dollars.

E. Discussions

It is the Government's intent to award without discussions, therefore, it is imperative that offeror's submit their best terms initially. However, if during the evaluation period, it is determined to be in the best interest of the Government to hold discussions, offeror responses to Evaluation Notices (ENs), and the Final Proposal Revisions (FPRs) will be considered in making the source selection decision.

This Qualification Requirement applies to all engine items managed by GKG specifically determined and approved by the Cognizant Engineering Authority (CEA)/Engineering Source Authority (ESA)/ Design Control Activity (DAC) to be Critical Safety Items (CSI) except Flight Safety Critical Parts (FSCP). The CSI item designation is identified on a MQR-1 listing that is maintained by the appropriate CEA office.

2. DEFINITIONS.

2.2. Category 1 Offeror - A manufacturing source, which in conjunction with their sub-vendors has performed all requisite processes on the approval part, for the Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) or a Department of Defense (DoD) propulsion system. Sub-vendors are subject to approval by Cognizant Engineering Authority.

2.3. Category 2 Offeror - Manufacturing source, which in conjunction with their sub-vendors has performed all requisite processes on a similar part for an OEM or a DoD propulsion system. Sub-vendors are subject to approval by the Cognizant Engineering Authority.

2.4. Cognizant Engineering Authority Head or Head of the Design Control Activity for this MQR means the following: The Propulsion Chief Engineer and the Engineering Office Chief for the respective propulsion system.

2.5. Cognizant Engineering Authority, Engineering Source Authority, or Design Control Activity are the same for this MQR: Means the systems command of a military department that is specifically responsible for ensuring the air worthiness of an aviation system or equipment in which an aviation safety item is to be used.

2.6. Critical Characteristic - Any feature throughout the life cycle of a Critical Item, such as dimension, tolerance, finish, material, or assembly, manufacturing or inspection process, operation, field maintenance, or depot overhaul requirement that if non conforming, missing, or degraded may cause the failure or malfunction of the Critical Item.

2.7. Critical Safety Item or Propulsion Critical Safety Item or Aviation Critical Safety Item all mean the same thing for this MQR as follows:

An item shall be identified as CSI when failure of that item could result in loss or substantial damage to the air vehicle or weapons system, or death or serious injury to personnel. Damage sufficient to create a Class A accident or a mishap of severity category I constitutes "substantial damage". Items determined to be a "flight safety part," "flight critical part," "flight safety critical part", "flight safety critical rotating part", "fracture critical part" or similar terminology shall be designated as CSIs by the Service CEA/ESA. Items determined as "structurally significant," "fracture critical" or "safety of flight structure" shall be identified as CSI.

2.8. Fabricate - The manufacturing steps necessary for the making of new parts.

2.9. Inspection Method Sheets (IMS) - document used to describe the steps involved in executing an inspection or series of inspections to include tooling, gages, fixtures, dimensions and other parameters necessary to execute the required inspection(s).

2.10. Major Characteristics - A part feature which, if non-conforming, could compromise the function of the part, resulting in a significant maintenance burden and/or reduction in weapon system performance.

2.11. Manufacturing Process Sheets (MPS) - documents used to describe the steps involved in executing an operation or series of operations to include tooling, machinery, dimensions, speeds, feed rates, coolants, cutters, tape numbers and other operating, process and/or set-up parameters necessary to execute the operation. At a minimum, significant processes in Appendix A shall be fully defined.

2.12. Material - A general term referring to material at any stage in the manufacturing process.

2.13. National Aerospace and Defense Contractors Accreditation Program (NADCAP) – The Performance Review Institute (PRI), an independent, not-for-profit trade association affiliated with the Society of Automotive Engineers (SAE) through NADCAP, accredits subcontractors and suppliers to aerospace and defense industry consensus standards.

Original Equipment Manufacturer or Prime Contractor for this MQR means the following: Term typically applied to the source responsible for the original design and development of a product or system. In this case it shall refer to sources primarily responsible for the design and development of aircraft gas turbine engines for a US DoD activity or a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) country.

2.17. Production Quantities - Quantities that establish a reasonable level of confidence in a prospective source's ability to consistently produce parts whose integrity is equivalent to that exhibited by parts that originally passed substantiation testing. As a minimum it shall be considered representative of several production lots or greater quantities commensurate with those specified in current solicitations or OC-ALC annual buy projections and shall be exclusive of quantities produced in experimental or developmental programs.

2.18. Purchaser -The Purchaser as defined in all applicable government specifications as well as all OEM specifications relative to the part described in this document shall refer to the OC-ALC contracting activity issuing the procurement requirement.

2.20. Significant Process - A process which is capable of producing alterations in the material structure of a part which cannot normally be evaluated without destructive testing and which can compromise the mechanical properties and ultimately the reliability of the part. Examples of processes that are considered to be significant by OC-ALC Propulsion are listed in Appendix A.

2.21. Similar part - A part that satisfies all of the specific criteria for similarity as defined in the Qualification Requirements (QRs) for the approval part.

2.22. Sub-vendor - A source supplying material, products, and/or services to the Supplier as required in the performance of the contract. This term applies to all facilities other than the Supplier's facility including those of the same company.

2.23. Technical Order - A technical manual published by the Air Force containing (in this case) technical information required to develop inspection methods processes for aircraft engine parts.

2.24. Value Added By OEM – Any action, manufacturing or inspection process, data, instructions, or equipment that is essential to the manufacture of the part, but is not documented in the data package. Examples of value added are the use of OEM qualification of sources for forgings, castings, raw materials; the use of OEM tooling, fixtures, gages or inspection master hardware; the use of OEM MPS, IMS, or other process related data not referenced on the part drawing(s); quality assurance of sub-vendors of significant processes all as related to the performance of manufacture.

2.25. Flight Safety Critical Parts – Is a subset of Aviation Critical Safety Item and besides meeting the definition of Aviation Critical Safety Item is also defined as engine components which meet ALL of the following criteria:

- Component failure would result in death or weapon system loss
- Or results in a non-recoverable in-flight shutdown (NRIFSD) rate of 0.5 per 1,000,000 engine flying hours
- And component is highly stressed
- And component contains critical characteristics which cannot be fully inspected by non-destructive inspection (NDI)
- And component failure mode is fatigue and/or stress corrosion
- And component is manufactured from high strength steel, titanium, high-temperature nickel or cobalt alloy

3. SCOPE

3.1. This document establishes the minimum technical requirements which prospective sources must satisfy in order to obtain engineering source approval for the specified applications.

3.2. All documentation provided in a Source Approval Request (SAR) must be in the English language and the measurement system used on the OEM drawing. Cost data may be removed from documentation.

3.3. Engineering source approval shall be valid for three years from the date of the OC-ALC letter notifying the contractor of engineering source approval. Approved sources will be required to resubstantiate their capability. Resubstantiation shall involve documenting that no significant changes to process location, sequence, or parameters have occurred, the offeror has the current drawings and specifications, and no significant quality deficiencies are awaiting corrective action. Significant changes or unresolved quality deficiencies may result in additional testing, or revocation of source approval status, depending on the nature and extent of the changes and/or quality deficiencies. Resubstantiation is valid for three years from the date approval would expire and may be submitted six months prior to previous approval expiration.

4. CONTRACTOR RESPONSIBILITY STANDARDS: [Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) 9.104]

4.1. Offerors must submit a complete technical data package on all similar items as specified in Paragraph 7.

4.2. Offerors must submit a complete technical data package on the approval item as specified in Paragraph 7.

Processes and assembly details to be performed or produced in-house by the Offeror shall be identified as such for both Category 1 and Category 2 Offerors. Approval shall be restricted to the following conditions:

5.3.1. The Offeror shall substantiate that source(s) for castings and forgings are currently approved by the OEM or CEA or provide a rationale proving to the CEA that the casting or forging source is capable of manufacturing the subject part to the equivalent or better OEM or CEA quality standards.

5.3.4. In all instances where substantiation of OEM approval is used, the Offeror shall include a copy of the official OEM process certification and all conditions and restrictions imposed by the OEM.

5.3.5. In all cases where process approval substantiation is based upon approval by an OEM not specified on the drawing or by NADCAP to perform an equivalent process, the equivalence of the specifications must be clearly demonstrated by the Offeror in order to obtain the approval of the Cognizant Engineering Authority. Evidence shall include, but not be limited to, a complete copy of the relevant specifications.

7. DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

7.1. A complete set of legible drawings for all assemblies, details, and sub-components. Drawings shall be the latest revision unless authorized by the CEA. If the drawings are proprietary and they state they are proprietary to other than the offeror then the offeror would need to have the president or equivalent sign a notarized statement that they have the rights to the drawing. If the contractor can get nonproprietary drawings from the Air Force or another source that could be used instead of the proprietary drawings this would resolve the proprietary problem. The government does not supply proprietary drawings, but has nonproprietary drawings that OEM's send to vendors marked as proprietary.

7.2. A complete set of all drawing referenced specifications (top page only for OEM developed specifications) for all materials and manufacturing processes identified on the drawings for the similar parts and sub-components thereof. Documents referenced by drawing referenced specifications that apply to the manufacture of the drawing part, or equivalent documents or procedures approved by the CEA.

7.3. A detailed description of major similarities and differences between the "similar" part(s) and the approval part.

7.4. A specific description of "value added" by the OEM to the approval part or similar part(s). The Offeror shall document his capability to fulfill "value added" by the OEM on the approval part as determined by CEA.

7.5. Copies of purchase orders from purchaser to Offeror and Offeror to sub-vendors that define quantities ordered and all technical conditions or restrictions imposed.

7.6. Copies of documentation verifying acceptance of parts supplied on the applicable purchase orders. For example, shipping documents stamped by the purchaser to indicate full release where on-site acceptance is specified by the purchase order is acceptable.

7.7. A complete set of MPS and IMS to include:

7.7.1. MPS and IMS employed in the production of the actual part for Category 1 offerors or the similar part(s) for Category 2 offerors. Evidence of purchaser approval of the MPS is required. Summary of manufacturing operations sheets, travelers, or routing sheets are not acceptable in lieu of MPS, except for some sheet metal parts. In the case of the latter routing sheets that define process sequence, forming tooling, non-conventional machining schedules, weld schedules, and braze schedules shall be provided. All schedules and technical control documents referenced in the MPS that specify process operating parameters shall be included. MPS shall remain confidential and may be stamped "proprietary" at the discretion of the Offeror.

7.7.2. A summary of manufacturing process sheets, travelers, or routing sheets that identify all significant manufacturing processes to be employed in the fabrication of the approval part for OC-ALC. This documentation is subject to approval by CEA.

7.7.3. Identification of all proposed changes to the MPS and IMS submitted by Category I Offerors, as proof of capability. This requirement applies regardless of whether or not the Offeror considers them significant changes.

7.8. Identify all sub-vendors of significant processes and sub-components employed in the production of the part(s).

7.8.1. For significant processes subcontracted, the Offeror must provide his method for insuring quality control and conformance to specification at the sub-vendor's plant. This should not only include identification of such procedures in the company Quality Manual but also physical evidence such as audit reports, surveys, and chemical and physical test reports. If receiving inspection cannot verify conformance to specification, then chemical and physical test data along with in-work process control data must accompany each lot.

7.8.2. Certificates of test or conformance provided by sub vendors of significant processes must be provided and supported by copies of the MPS and IMS used by the sub-vendor. Acceptance of incoming material based exclusively upon certificates of test/conformance shall be prohibited. Specific test procedures utilized on engine parts shall be identified.

7.9. Findings and resolution of findings for any external audits conducted by the OEM or NADCAP.

7.10. A summary of quality deficiencies experienced in fabrication part during the last two years of production and actions taken to resolve the deficiencies. The summary shall include all Material Review Board (MRB) actions, Quality Deficiency Reports (QDRs), Laboratory Quality Review Orders (LQROs), Supplier Report of Nonconformance (SRONs), Material Deficiency Reports (MDRs) and any other pertinent documentation as well as the coordination of the President or Facility General Manager, and the Quality Assurance Manager. Coordination of the government quality assurance representative shall be included as well if government source inspection was conducted.

7.11. A Quality Assurance Manual that accurately portrays their current quality assurance system, as follows:

7.11.1. The Offeror's Quality Assurance System must comply with the requirements as described in this document and higher level contract quality requirements (FAR52.246-11) of AS9100, NATO AQAP-2070, ISO 9001:2000, or equivalent. Proof of compliance shall be provided, dated within the last three years, and meet one of the following:

7.11.1.1. Certified to AS9100, NATO AQAP-2070, or ISO 9001:2000 by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) or the International Standards Organization (ISO) in Geneva, Switzerland, or

7.11.1.2. Approved by an OEM to an equivalent Quality Assurance System standard, or

7.11.1.3. Evidence from Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA) or other appropriate government Quality Assurance Representative that Quality System is compliant to AS9100, NATO AQAP-2070, or ISO 9001:2000, or equivalent.

7.11.2. The Offeror must provide a Quality Plan for the approval part which includes procedures/specifications governing the control of significant processes proposed for use in fabrication, to include:

7.11.2.1. Identification of the organization responsible for determining the quality requirements for testing and surveillance conducted on subvendors, testing laboratories used and the specific testing typically performed, subcontract quality requirements, and the specific paragraphs of the quality assurance document(s) that govern such aspects.

7.11.2.2. Control measures to ensure that only CEA approved sources are used for raw material, significant processes, and major sub-components.

7.11.2.3. Control measures to ensure that fabrication performed in-house and by sub-vendors is accomplished in accordance with work instructions specified in the MPS, schedules, and/or technical control plans which define the exact sequence of all production operations and all process variables and all critical parameters of manufacturing operations which may directly affect material structure, mechanical properties, surface finish and/or direction or lay of the cutting action. The procedure shall also assure that work instructions have been approved by the CEA.

7.11.2.4. Control measures to ensure that all inspection of characteristics, which serves as the basis for final acceptance of a characteristic, including in-process inspections, are performed in accordance with IMS which define all characteristics specified on the applicable OEM drawings and include sample size, frequency of inspection, the specific inspection methodology to be utilized, and the required instrumentation. The procedure(s) shall also assure that all IMS have been approved by the purchaser.

7.11.2.5. Control measures to ensure that dedicated equipment is properly maintained and calibrated in accordance with ISO 10012-1 and is capable of adequately performing its intended application.

7.11.2.6. General housekeeping and manufacturing practices shall be addressed in the Plan to ensure they do not adversely affect product quality.

7.11.2.7. Statistical Process Control shall be addressed in the Plan. A clear understanding of Critical and Major Characteristics must be demonstrated. All Statistical Process Control must be correlated to the Critical and Major Characteristics with the least responding characteristic controlling the process. The Plan shall include responsibility, methods and procedures for identifying variables and parameters to be monitored, developing and approving work instructions, identification of trends that signal process problems, and initiation of corrective actions.

7.11.2.8. Procedures for assuring that certificates of test or conformance provided by sub-vendors of raw material and significant processes are complete and supported by process data and numerical test results from an OEM-approved or CEA-approved laboratory for the requisite testing, are representative of material received, and the material is in conformance with Purchaser requirements.

7.11.2.9. Adequate records are retained for documenting sub-vendor lists, sub-vendor quality ratings, layout inspection reports, all Purchaser and OEM approvals, component traceability, and objective evidence of conformance to product, process, and quality acceptance requirements; and are available to the Purchaser upon request.

7.11.2.10. Evidence of a system for controlling non-conforming material to ensure:

7.11.2.10.1. The classification of all non-conforming characteristics in terms of critical, major, and minor is approved by the Purchaser.

7.11.2.10.2. Use or rework of all non-conforming must be approved by the Purchaser.

7.11.2.10.3. Effective control of non-conforming material at sub-vendor facilities.

8. SAR FORMAT

8.1. Source Approval Requests (SARs) should be submitted in a binder to preclude the loss of contractor data in handling. A notebook (i.e. a three-ring binder or similar product), with a table of contents and tabs corresponding to the table of contents is preferable. This will significantly reduce the turn-around time for engineering evaluation as well as reduce the likelihood of oversight or loss of valuable data that could have a significant bearing on the outcome of the evaluation. The Quality Manual may be submitted on a Compact Disc (CD) in a standard Microsoft Office application or .pdf file format.

9. LOSS OF QUALIFICATION APPROVAL (FAR 9.207)

9.1. The Offeror should be aware that qualification approval may be lost per the conditions detailed in FAR 9.207.

10. USE OF PROPRIETARY DATA IN SOURCE APPROVAL REQUESTS

10.1. Potential sources are not to utilize intellectual property of third parties without appropriate authorization of the intellectual property owner. Potential sources are cautioned that no part of the government qualification requirement is intended to endorse or encourage the improper use of intellectual property developed by the Original Equipment Manufacturer or any other third party.
